

What's happening with SSI

We welcomed
Peyton Tucker to the team as Project Coordinator - Search Operations.

Darwin was featured on "The Resilient Recruiter" Podcast. During the podcast, Darwin speaks about why he started SSI, the marketing tools SSI uses, and why he wants to be a different kind of recruiting firm.

Team Meeting and Christmas Party

We were blessed to be able to gather the entire team for training and a Christmas party.

Thank you to our guest speakers- Todd Dawson, Joe Mullings, Wes Ashworth, Hannah Marie Butcher, and Phoebe Pickergill who shared their knowledge with the team and has geared us up for a great 2023!

Volunteering

SSI partnered with the Megan's Fund in an effort to support three foster siblings for the holiday season. We are grateful for the opportunity to help others.
