WHO WE ARE:

- For nearly a decade, SHURIG SOLUTIONS INC has grown into a nationally recognized medical industry talent source, serving the needs of start-ups, private and small businesses, and mid-cap companies to publicly traded and top-30 global medical device and biotech companies across the world.
- We work closely with our clients to fully understand their business requirements and organizational culture and to develop a customized approach to identifying, attracting, recruiting, and retaining the right talent for contract or permanent placement.
- SHURIG's MedTech recruiters successfully helped employers fill various crucial roles by determining precisely what and who they need to push forward to reach their national and international directives effectively.
- Our recruiters can help identify, attract, and retain the talents to meet our client's needs in various functional areas at the VP, Director, Manager, and Mid-Level.
- Our experience provides us the perspectives necessary to effectively place technical and cultural appropriate talent in roles across all verticals and build the medical space's most productive teams.
